NOTHING OUTPOWERS A KICKCHARGE WEBSITE

RANK. ENGAGE. CONVERT.

Your website isn't just a digital business card—it's your brand's first impression, your lead generator and your competitive edge. If your site isn't ranking on Google, converting visitors into leads and reinforcing your brand, then it's failing your business.

At KickCharge, we design, write and build websites that win in both appearance and performance. Don't settle for a website that looks great but fails on the back-end, or one that is optimized but looks like it belongs in the Dark Ages. You deserve the best of both worlds for your website—and that's exactly what we provide. Trust our experts to build high-performing, brand-driven websites that make your company

WHY BUILD YOUR WEBSITE WITH KICKCHARGE?

We're protective of the brands we create. By partnering with us to build your website, you can have confidence that we are fully invested in how your site performs and operates. We put a whole lot of thought into building your brand and making sure it would have the power to change your life. Now, it's time to actually make that happen by having the right website!

Your KickCharge website will be:

- Brand-focused to the max. We don't just slap a logo on a template and call it a day. Every KickCharge site is a symphony of colors, fonts and other visual elements that tie back to your brand. This is in addition to your brand voice, which harmonizes words with visuals to create a captivating and cohesive experience. KickCharge sites bring brands to life, setting you apart from the sea of sameness.
- SEO-optimized for better ranking. A website that no one finds is just wasted potential. We build SEO into the foundation—site structure, content, and technical best practices—to get you to the top of search results. We also

- Built to convert. Every website we build is designed to generate leads, with clear calls to action, user-friendly navigation and conversion-focused strategy.
- Mobile-friendly & lightning fast. A slow, clunky website will cost you business every single day. We optimize our sites for speed, performance and flawless mobile responsiveness to keep visitors engaged and more likely to convert.
- Powered by WordPress. We build our sites using WordPress, the world's leading content management system (CMS). WordPress sites are easy to edit and update without any sort of coding knowledge required. If you're familiar with Microsoft Word, you already know how to edit the content on your website. They're flexible, scalable, secure, future-proof and versatile with hundreds of plugins to expand functionality. Lastly, WordPress sites are SEO-friendly with built-in optimization tools. Without question, WordPress sites offer the best balance of customization and ease of use, making it the perfect choice for home service companies.

FRAMEWORK WEBSITES: FASTER, PROVEN & BRAND-ALIGNED

A framework website isn't some off-the-shelf template—it's a KickCharge-designed, high-performance website that we custom-fit to your brand.
